7/1 CHOOSE AFTERNOON ACTIVITIES

- A – Hello. I'm
 B – Hello. Community Centre, ... speaking.
 A – I'm calling regarding the newspaper article.
 B – How can I help you?
 A – I'd like to enrol on one of the courses and I'd like to get some more information about them.
 B – Sure! What would you like to know?
 A – When do you have these activities? When's the dance course?
 B – It's on Mondays and Wednesdays in the evening.
 A – OK. What about the pottery course?
 B – That's on Friday afternoons.
 A – And the karate?
 B – Tuesdays and Thursdays in the evening.
 A – All right. Are all of them organised in the community centre?
 B – Yes, all of them are. The dance is in the ballroom, the pottery course in the crafts room and the karate in the sports hall.
 A – That's fine. Do I need to bring anything to the courses?
 B – You'll need dance shoes if you choose that one, and a karate suit if you decide on that, but you don't need to bring anything to the pottery course.
 A – How about the costs? How much do these classes cost?
 B – The dance class and the pottery class cost the same, 1,500 forints, but the karate class is a bit more expensive.
 A – OK. Thank you. I don't think I can make it to the pottery class as it's too early in the afternoon, so I'm thinking of choosing the dance class. Will I need to bring a partner with me?
 B – No, other people will come alone too. We'll find you a partner there. You don't need to worry about that.
 A – Fantastic! Thank you.
 B – You're welcome. Is there anything else I can help you with?
 A – When do I need to enrol in the course?
 B – It starts next Monday.
 A – All right. Thanks for the information. Bye.
 B – Bye.

7/2 DECIDE WHETHER TO WATCH A FILM AT HOME OR IN THE CINEMA

 B – I don't know. What do you suggest?
 A – Well, we could either stay at home and watch something on TV or go out and check out a movie.
 B – OK, then let's look at the TV programme first.
 A – Right. It looks as though some good films are on: Spiderman and Robin Hood, for example.
 B – Is this Robin Hood the one with Kevin Costner? It's not bad but I've seen it at least a hundred times.
 A – Me too. How about Spiderman then?
 B – I'm not really interested in that one either.
 A – OK. Let me see. We also have 50 First Dates or a handball game.
 B – 50 First Dates? I don't particularly like Adam Sandler so let's skip that. The handball game sounds OK for me. Who's playing?
 A – Veszprém against Ciudad Real. That should be great!
 B – Yes, you're right. What about the cinema?
 A – Well, to be honest these films don't really look very interesting to me. I mean what sort of films are these? Star Wars? That's an ancient story! And Boyhood? What's that? I've never heard of it!
 B – Come on! We could have a great time! I'm sure there'll be a lot of people watching such a classic as Star Wars!
 A – Are you serious about that?
 B – Why not? It should be great! The atmosphere is always better in the cinema. And we could watch it on the big screen with digital surround sound.
 A – So are you suggesting that we go out?
 B – Yes, I think we should.
 A – Do you have money for the tickets?
 B – I'll treat you. I'll even buy you popcorn.

 A – Yes, and it's really a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.
 B – Who's coming here? Madonna?
 A – No, it's Bruno Mars! And it would be great to see him live in concert.
 B – How do you want to pay for the ticket?
 A – I thought it would be great if you could buy it for my birthday. And I don't want anything else, only the ticket.
 B – How much is it?
 A – Well, it's 9,600 forints. But it's for a great place quite close to the stage!
 B – But it's so expensive!
 A – I know, but really Mum / Dad, please!
 B – And how would you get to Budapest?
 A – By public transport. I have already checked that there is a bus to Népliget in the afternoon, we'll take tram number 1 to the Arena and then we'll come home by train from the Eastern Train Station.
 B – When does the train leave from there?
 A – It leaves at 11.30 p.m.

 A – Thanks Mum / Dad. You're the best!

 B – Hey ... ! What's up?
 A – I've just seen some awesome sports event ads in the newspaper! Did you know that we're hosting the European Water Polo Championship this summer?

 A – Yes! And we have the usual Formula 1 race too.
 B – I know that one.
 A – I say we should go this year.
 B – To which one?
 A – It would be great to go to both, but they are on the same weekend.
 B – What a pity! So we have to choose.
 A – Yes. What do you think? Formula 1 or water polo?
 B – Well, I like both. The water polo championships are longer, we could watch a few games in the preliminary rounds and go to the Formula 1 race on Sunday.
 A – Well, I'm actually more interested in the finals and I don't think we can afford to go to all of them.
 B – You're probably right.
 A – I know it's not easy to choose.
 B – So where shall we go? Shall we check out the best cars in the world? Listen to the engines roaring?
That could be fantastic!
 A – Oh yes, that would be great, but I was thinking that we should go to the water polo finals.
 B – Why?
 A – Because we have an awesome team and everyone says that we could win it. Can you imagine what sort of an atmosphere it will have when thousands of people are cheering for Hungary?
 B – OK, you've convinced me.
 A – And I know that water polo fans are among the best supporters in Hungary. I'm sure they will provide a great show.
 B – Cool! So where do they sell the tickets?

- B - Wow, unbelievable! You've always been somewhat lazy and you've never done anything apart from the PE lessons.
- A - Yes, but everyone in the class does sports and I would like to do something, too.
- B - What are you waiting for then?
- A - I'm not sure which sport to choose. I need your advice.
- B - What are your choices?
- A - There are three possibilities I've heard of. One of them is parachuting.
- B - What? Are you out of your mind? That's very dangerous.
- A - Yes, but there is a very good instructor so I would be perfectly safe.
- B - Forget it! It must be very expensive.
- A - A jump costs 25,000 forints.
- B - Oh, my god! What about the equipment?
- A - I wouldn't have to buy anything because they provide everything.
- B - What about the other two?
- A - There is a new chess club I could join.
- B - Are you kidding? Chess has nothing to do with physical exercise.
- A - Yes, that's true, but at least it's not dangerous and the company is great. I even have a chess board, so it wouldn't cost a penny.
- B - What is the third sport you have thought of?
- A - Football. But there is a membership fee for the football club.
- B - How much is it?
- A - 5,000 forints a month.
- B - That's a nice sum, but I can afford to pay it for you. Which one would you like to take up then?
- A - I think I'll choose football if you can pay the fee. I have several friends in the team and it's good physical exercise.
- B - OK. Good choice.
- A - Thank you, Dad / Mum.

7/6 GET INFORMATION ABOUT A THEATRE PLAY

- A - Good afternoon.
- B - Good afternoon. Keystone Theatre. How can I help you?
- A - I would like to inquire about your Hamlet performance. Could you tell me who directed the play?
- B - Kenneth Brannagh, and the actors are also award winning artists.
- A - Wow, that's great. Who plays Hamlet?
- B - Joseph Fiennes. It's a special guest performance.
- A - It sounds terrific. When is the next performance?
- B - There are only two performances. The first one is on 20th January and the second one is on the following day.
- A - I'd like to have four tickets for the performance on 21st, please.
- B - Where would you like to sit?
- A - I would like to have four seats next to each other on the balcony.
- B - There aren't many left, I'm afraid. I can give you four seats in the stalls, but the view from there is not very good.
- A - OK, no problem, I will take those. How much are they?
- B - They're £9 each, so that'll be £36 all together. What name please?
- A - Frank Gauci.
- B - Pardon? Could you spell your last name?
- A - G-A-U-C-I. How can I pay?
- B - You can pick your tickets up at the ticket office from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day, and you can pay in cash or by credit card.
- A - Oh, one more thing. How long is the play?
- B - It's quite long, it takes three hours.
- A - Oh, dear. How many acts are there?
- B - There are three acts and two intervals.
- A - OK, thank you very much.
- B - You're welcome. Bye.
- A - Bye.

7/7 CHOOSE A BOOK

- A – Hello, Mr/Ms How are you? I was wondering whether I could see my end-term test results.
- B – Hello, I'm glad you've come to see me. I wanted to call you anyway because it seems that you finished the course with flying colours. You got great results in the test, so the school has decided to reward you with a book.
- A – That's fantastic. Thanks a lot. What book will I get?
- B – You can choose one of these three.
- A – Oh, I see. I know Jamie Oliver, he has great TV shows about cooking, but I'm not so keen on cooking, so I don't think I'll have that one.
- B – What about this encyclopaedia about Formula 1 races?
- A – Well, I'm interested in motor racing, and there must be some beautiful photos about the races as well, but I would like to have something that I could read on the beach in the summer. I don't want to take a heavy album with me.
- B – Well, then I think this one by Cooper would be the best.
- A – Wow, The Last of the Mohicans. I've read it in Hungarian, and I liked it very much. I like adventure books and American Indian stories a lot. It must be great to read it in the original language. By the way, is the vocabulary very complicated in it?
- B – No, I think it's a great story, with great language, and you could improve your vocabulary even more.
- A – All right, then I think I'll choose the novel. Thank you very much.
- B – It's a great choice. You're welcome and congratulations on your results.
- A – Thanks. Bye.
- B – Bye.

7/8 PERSUADE A FRIEND TO GO TO CSESZNEK WITH YOU

- A – Hi! Guess where I'm going to celebrate 20th August this year!
- B – I don't know. Where?
- A – In Csesznek!
- B – And why is that so interesting? Where is it?
- A – Haven't you heard of this little village? It's in the Bakony hills. Each year the King Stephen (István a Király) rock opera is performed by great actors live on stage there. Usually some people from the original cast are there as well.
- B – Are you going?
- A – Yes, I am. Would you like to come?
- B – Only to watch a rock opera? No, I don't think so.
- A – But it's not only the rock opera. It's an experience you definitely shouldn't miss.
- B – Why?
- A – Some of us have already agreed that we would go there in the morning. We could spend the whole day there. We could have fun!
- B – What would we do?
- A – Well, first we could visit the castle ruins. The ruins and view from the top of the hill are breathtaking.
- B – That's all?
- A – No, of course, not. We could have lunch in one of the local restaurants. Later we could have a look at the village. We could just take a walk there.
- B – When does the performance start?
- A – It starts at 8 p.m. It lasts until about 11 o'clock.
- B – Is it so long?
- A – Yes, but the best part is that we are going to be in an open-air theatre and we are going to sit on bundles of straw.
- B – And why is that so good?
- A – Because we can have a picnic during the performance. And it has such a great atmosphere. More than ten thousand people gather to watch the opera each year.
- B – Really?
- A – Yes, and after the performance the actors sing the national anthem and there is a beautiful firework display.
- B – Sounds good.
- A – Yes, absolutely. We could go by car. I have already talked to a friend of mine who would take us. So, would you like to come?
- B – OK. Let's go.
- A – Good. It'll be fantastic. You'll see.
- B – Yes. Thanks for inviting me.
- A – You're welcome.

7/1 HOBBIES

There are several ways to spend our free time meaningfully. Some people prefer to take up sports and other active hobbies, while others like creative hobbies such as pottery, painting, sculpting, photography, sewing or knitting. Free time activities such as reading, going to the theatre, cinema, a concert or exhibitions, watching TV or doing crosswords are rather intellectual and they don't take much creativity.

Some hobbies require a lot of money so only a few people can afford them, for example, motor racing, sailing, photography, skiing or collecting coins. Teenagers usually take up less expensive pastimes such as jogging, going to the cinema or playing sports because they are more affordable.

Most sports are done outdoors or in gyms. The less active hobbies usually take place indoors at home, at a community centre, a cinema, a theatre, a concert hall or an exhibition hall. Some activities are practised alone such as reading, sewing, knitting, sculpting and painting because they require privacy and concentration, while other pastimes are better done with friends.

There are many reasons why people choose to take up a particular hobby. Some hobbies attract people because they require creativity, some because they are more energetic, whilst others are chosen because they are fashionable. People take a lot of things into consideration such as what is required in terms of time, money and the possible benefits, for example, how much it will help them to relax.

I have tried several hobbies so far, including folk dancing, singing in the choir, playing the piano, drawing, swimming, karate, playing the guitar. Right now I play volleyball twice a week and I attend a drama group, too, which is very exciting and also very challenging. I would like to continue drawing but for the time being I have to study a lot for school, so I don't really have time for any more hobbies.

7/2 CULTURAL EVENTS

After sitting indoors all day at school or at work people like going out. On Friday or Saturday nights they often go to the disco or to a pub. Sometimes they go to a concert. Going to the theatre or to an exhibition is a bit more serious but a lot of people like to do this.

Going to the theatre can be a wonderful experience. If you are sitting close to the stage, you are almost face-to-face with the actors and actresses. You need to get the tickets in advance, and if you read the plot beforehand, it will make your theatre experience much more enjoyable. There are some rules you have to keep in mind if you go to the theatre. You must turn off your cell phone and dress appropriately. Talking during the performance or singing along with the play can be very annoying for others. There aren't so many dos and don'ts if you go to a concert, especially if it is a pop or a rock concert. You can scream, shout and sing along with the show. Seeing your favourite singer live can be an unforgettable experience.

If you go to an exhibition, you don't need to buy the tickets beforehand. You just walk around and enjoy the beautiful paintings, drawings, sculptures or other exhibits, but large crowds of visitors can spoil your visit.

My home town offers a lot of entertainment opportunities such as going to the theatre, concerts or exhibitions. Our theatre is very famous all over the country, and its performances are of a high standard. The theatrical company consists of well-known actors and actresses who always give their best. I especially like the musicals there. There is also a wide variety of concerts to choose from. During the year there are several festivals and events and a lot of concerts.

A few years ago I visited the Museum of Fine Arts in Budapest with my class. We saw the exhibition: "Monet and his friends". It was a very big art event in Hungary. The exhibition presented famous paintings by Monet and his contemporaries. The paintings followed a special thematic order. I even bought some postcards of Monet paintings as a souvenir.

7/3 FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

There are a lot of relaxing and entertaining activities families can do, both outdoors and indoors. If they stay at home, they can play cards, board games or watch DVDs. If they want to enjoy the fresh air, they might go fishing, hiking or walking. They can also go to the zoo, to the circus, to the fun fair or to an aqua park.

Our town offers a lot of entertainment facilities. There is a swimming pool, a sports centre, a cinema, a theatre, a library, a football pitch and a bowling club. There is also a zoo in the nearby town of Veszprém, which attracts a lot of families with small children. It's worth visiting because children can see a wide variety of animals and even stroke and feed them in the petting zoo. Circuses usually travel around the country so there are many places where you can find them especially in spring and summer.

I think it is very important for a family to spend some time together especially nowadays when everybody is busy and running somewhere. When a family is together, they can have fun, talk to each other and play games. They can also share experiences and adventures. Children usually enjoy it very much when parents take them to the zoo or to a funfair.

I think I can consider myself lucky because my parents took me to a lot of places such as zoos and funfairs when I was young. We also spent a lot of time together at home playing board games or cards. I always enjoyed these games and we had a lot of fun playing them.

7/4 SPORTS

There are many different types of sports, some of them are done individually, others in teams. Most ball games, such as football, handball, basketball, baseball, volleyball, rugby or ice- and field hockey are done in teams. Others, such as swimming, athletics, skiing, combat sports and tennis, are done individually.

Some people like to be part of a team. They like the feeling that they can rely on others, that when they win or lose they do it together. Those people would probably do team sports. Others like to achieve results alone, so if anything goes wrong they can only blame themselves. Some of them feel that they don't want to depend on others. They would most probably do individual sports. It also happens sometimes that a person simply likes a particular sport or it is a family tradition and they start doing it regardless of their personality.

Hungary has some very popular and successful sports. Football is probably the most popular, although we are not particularly successful in it at the moment. Lots of people like handball and water sports such as swimming or water polo. Events draw huge crowds when the national team or athletes are competing in these sports. We also have great gymnasts and boxers and we have had huge successes in the kayaking and canoeing too.

My school has an indoor and an outdoor sports field. We usually do gymnastics inside or we use the weights and other machines, and we play basketball or indoor football. We can also play football outside, or do athletics when the weather is fine. We have access to the town swimming pool and the ice rink once a week. We are very lucky that we can use them; we have had some great times there. I like handball the most, I go to training once a week in the community centre. I play with friends there and this year we participated in the town championship. We had lots of fun.

7/5 FREE TIME ACTIVITIES

The most common free time activities are probably reading, watching TV or movies, listening to music, surfing the net, playing video or computer games, spending time with family, hanging out with friends or playing with our pets. At least these are the ones most people will list when they are asked what they do in their free time.

People have different opinions about these activities, a lot of them would say that watching TV or surfing the net or playing video or computer games are not good for young people; they should move around or be around people more instead of spending their time alone sitting in front of some monitor. At the same time if you are watching documentaries or doing research for school topics on the net, or playing strategy games you can learn a lot and you can also improve certain skills, so they can actually be quite beneficial. Being active and spending time with people around us is always good, although when you just hang out with them or go out with them all the time you might have the feeling that in fact you are not doing anything.

Some hobbies or free time activities can be quite useful. For example, if you like knitting, sewing or DIY stuff you can make clothes or fix things in your home. If you like reading or antiques you can become highly educated about literature and arts. If you like gardening or cooking you will be able to grow your own food or cook varied and tasty meals for yourself. There are lots of useful activities that can be hobbies for some people and they can benefit from them a lot.

I usually do lots of things in my free time depending on my mood. Sometimes I read, sometimes I listen to music, or I call my friends and we go down to the nearby park to talk. I also like gardening so each year I cultivate a small part of our garden where I grow herbs and certain vegetables for myself. I enjoy working there a lot.

7/6 TECHNOLOGY AND FREE TIME

Nowadays technology plays a great part in every segment of our life. When we interact or spend time with others it's common that we do it with the help of some device. For example, we talk to our friends or family over the phone, or over Skype, or by chatting with them on Facebook or other social networks on the internet. When we play with others we can do that online too, we don't have to sit with them in the same room. When we train or dance we don't have to go to fitness clubs or discos, we can use particular home video game or fitness consoles and do these activities alone.

In the old days all these would have been impossible. When we wanted to talk to someone or play with someone we had to be in the same place as them and do it face to face. We usually went out when we wanted to train in a fitness club and we went to dance halls or discos to dance.

Technological improvements are great, they help our lives in a lot of ways, and these devices help us stay in contact with others but they are not always beneficial. We lose our personal contact with other people when we always have some device between us. We don't talk to people face to face anymore.

We don't go out to enjoy other people's company anymore because we can do all of these things sitting alone at home. In the long run people will have to find a way to combine these methods effectively so that they do not get completely isolated.

I have lots of friends and I also have a Facebook account and a smart phone but I only use them for contacting people and fixing dates with them. I like to meet them and go out somewhere with them.

I like personal interaction because I can see their faces and their reactions instantly. We don't have to use emoticons in face to face interactions.
